

Churches and Climate: Program is online

Von Sebastian Eckert

13. Oktober 2017 10:12

The protestant und catholic churches jointly created a program related to the COP23.

In workshops, seminars and lectures, we deal with the climate protection and the already perceptible consequences of climate change. Likewise, worship services and other spiritual offerings are open to all people in Bonn and to all participants involved in the World Climate Conference.